

For Immediate Release

Mark Martin to Introduce Hans on Teen Role Model Show

Fort Wayne, IN
December 27, 2011

The nationally syndicated TV show The Real Winning Edge, have decided to recognize Andrea Hans as a teen role model and they want to share Andrea's story with other youth on their show. Veteran NASCAR driver Mark Martin will be introducing Andrea on her segment of the show. Andrea was chosen for several reasons, one being she drives a race car and the main one being she lost a sister in a car accident.

Recognizing the immense impact of television on today's youth, Challenger Films seeks to inspire youth to seek a life of integrity and character.

Challenger Films seeks to fulfill its mission through projects such as The Real Winning Edge, a 26 week, 30 minute television series which profiles young achievers who are peer role models. These role models are introduced by well-known celebrities.

This show has given Andrea a chance to really witness her beliefs to other teens and hopefully help them find what their passions are and help them to pursue these passions that God has given them. Andrea Hans Racing supports this show and its mission and hope that our fans help to promote this inspiring show.

The web site link is listed below along with a link to a list of stations airing it. Andrea's show airs around the 24th and 25th of December depending on your local programming. In the Fort Wayne area it will be airing on the 27th on WANE TV (15-3) at 11:30am. Be sure to verify it with your local listings.
