

Andrea Hans Finishes a Strong Sixth at Illiana

CHARLOTTE — May 27, 2010 — Team Full Throttle (TFT) development driver, Andrea Hans, raced her No. 11 Legends car to a strong sixth place finish at Illiana Motor Speedway (IN) on Saturday, following a challenging race on Friday at Speedrome (IN) where a racing incident cut a good run short.

On Friday at Speedrome Hans had a good start in sixth in the feature and was ready to make a run to the front when the car in front of her got a little loose and sent her into the wall.

“We were trying the new Federal tires and running a borrowed motor while ours gets rebuilt,” said Hans. “We finished in 3rd in the heat race and the car was still a little tight on entry. We loosened it up for the feature and it felt good until we hit the wall. It’s never fun when you crash, especially when it wasn’t something you did wrong. But we had fun anyway and had the car back together that night and ready for the race at Illiana the next day.”

Hans qualified 12th out of 18 cars at Illiana, but smart driving and patience enabled her to gain six spots to finish in sixth.

“Illiana was a rough race with five cars taken out from crashes,” said Hans. “The racing was aggressive and we just tried to drive clean and free from the incidents.”

“I’d like to thank Kyle Beattie racing for the backup motor,” added Hans, “and Parkview Trauma, Erins House, AWA, Dave Hecht and mom and dad for all of their support.”

Hans will race again this weekend at Speedrome on Friday and Saturday, May 28 and 29. Saturday will be a National qualifier with a $1,000 to win.
